

Public broadcasting
should be a ground of equality not a place for millionaire
republican companies
to make statements.

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation
and BAD filtered
MEDIA PUBLICATION.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. I don't want to live in a country run by "big brother" and have
news filtered
through bias
companies. News and

should be equal and fair and it's the FCC's job to make sure of that. PLEASE
DO!!!
